Letter of Support by John Doe

In Support of _____, for her _____

I, the undersigned, hereby under oath depose and state the following:

1. My name is John Doe. I was born on April 1, 1984, in Caracas, Venezuela. I am currently a legal permanent resident. My ID is attached.
2. I have known _____ since we first became friends at work. That was some time around the beginning of 2011.
3. I am writing this affidavit in support of _____ petition for a U Visa. What I want to express is that she has been a good friend, and a great coworker. She is a valuable member of our community.
4. What stands out about _____ is how she ...the remainder of this

Affidavits of support and letters of support are given under oath, meaning you swear that everything you say in them is true, to the best of your knowledge

The first paragraph should state
1) Your name
2) Your birthday
3) Your place of birth (country and town)
4) Whether you are a U.S. citizen, U.S. permanent resident, or foreign national.

The second and third paragraphs should state:
1) How you know the person you are writing in support of
2) If possible, since when you have known them
3) WHY you are writing this. The WHY should reference the _____

After you establish who you are, and how you know the person you are writing your affidavit for, you should separate every small story or fact about them into separate paragraphs. There is no rule for how much you should write, but only write things you know to be true to the best of your recollection

I swear under penalty of perjury that all of the foregoing is true. I swear it on this day, the _____ day of _____ 20____.

You should try to leave at least one way that you can be contacted. This can be a phone number, an email, or a home address.

SIGN and date your letter. Unlike an affidavit, there is no need to do this in front of a notary.
